Different types of Varsity Jackets we offer

Leather varsity Jacket

SS-VJ-001

SS-VJ-002

You can easily stick to the traditional style of varsity jackets by opting for leather materials. Undeniably leather has a shine and an elegance which will surely give the Letterman jacket something worthy to fight for. Once the budding athletes will feel more interested to win the jackets, they will focus more on playing better. Moreover, leather material will support the embroidery or sequin that will bear the name of your school on the custom varsity jackets.

Wool varsity Jacket

SS-VJ-004

Wool has also been used to craft varsity jackets for a long period. As it is a natural material, it will not take a heavy toll on your budget. Woolen fabric will make the varsity jackets sturdier and more durable. These can also be used as a warmer during the chilly winter. Wool also have a capacity to resist moisture. So, you can easily settle on wool when you are going to order for customized jackets.

Cotton Fleece varsity Jacket

SS-VJ-005

SS-VJ-006

Cotton is one of the most popular materials for varsity jackets as it offers optimum comfort to the wearers and also wicks the excess moisture in warm weather. Cotton also has the quality to last longer. Therefore, cotton can also be your choice for varsity jackets.

Satin varsity Jacket

SS-VJ-007

SS-VJ-008

Being a lot similar to wool, Satin can be its inexpensive alternative. Soft and breathable in nature, fleece is a good choice when it comes to Satin varsity jacket. They are lightweight and easy to carry also.

Synthetic fabrics varsity Jacket

SS-VJ-009

Last but not the least, synthetic fabrics like polyester or nylon can be a great option for varsity jackets. These materials not only last longer but also offer comfort. Being available in various colors, these fabrics can lend more style to the varsity jackets.

So, if you are currently planning to design your varsity jackets choose the materials wisely and place your order.

Quality of Fabric/Material

DESIGN

When choosing material to use for embroidery, its ability to hold the embroidered stitching is a key factor. As without that, certain designs cannot be achieved. In addition, sportswear doubles as a fashion statement, especially in this age of sports branding – so what can be achieved in looks and aesthetic with a material is a huge consideration.

COMFORT

when you're exercising, the last thing you want is your clothing to feel uncomfortable. It distracts you and takes you out of the zone. You want something soft but also malleable and stretch resistant so you have full mobility when taking part in strenuous activity.

WEIGHT AND DURABILITY

functional clothing has to be hard-wearing as the material is put under significant stress during exercise and sporting activities. The weight of the clothing is also extremely important as in many sports every ounce you unnecessarily wear robs you of energy and worsens performance and results.

PROTECTION AGAINST THE ELEMENTS

This has become a much more important feature as materials have become available that are waterproof and wind resistant. In some climates, this must be close to the top of the list as the conditions are hazardous without protection.

Our Advantages

R&D Team

we have a professional designing and research team who are consistently working on new and in trend designs and designing patterns and check that patterns on different physiques to make them generalized and easy to buy for the clients without any more complexities which are more in general manufacturing units and many brands. You can design as many designs of ours and make your own if you see a good market in them.

Professional Factory

We are specialized in manufacturing, products designing, developing and customer service from 22 years when our ancestors started this business line specially in leather and now we have grown to the most popular markets of the world like USA, Australia and Germany and we got an office in Brisbane, Australia which deals with our clients in AU directly and supports them in the perfect way!

Price Quality Ratio

Our quality is second to none as we focus mainly on this subject but we provide our clients perfect quality in very good prices which is a unique factor of our working policy and that is what our beloved clients LOVE

Samples Development

As we produce bulk products but we also have made a section for ONLY SAMPLES DEVELOPMENT, which only deals with our new clients who are willing to produce new and beautiful designs for themselves so we give them best service in that too!
